Is buying a house ar	Investment or a consumption
If you have a rea:	sonable good job and getting a good amount as House Rent Allowance which can	n contribute towards EMI of loan If tax con	cession which you may get is substantial
If location	n is such where value of house is likely to appreciate
If you are	likely to use it your self or rent is good to compensate for interest Then buying a house with a loan may be considered as an Investment ng the house just for the sake of availing tax rebate you have to struggle for paying the EMIs,
	Then buying a house with a loan may not be a wise thing to do
